

Let Love Be Your Legacy

There are many ways for you to share your love of animals while also making provisions for your friends and family through estate planning. Both you and your family may benefit from your generosity to animals through tax-wise planning strategies. Please consult with your tax advisor to help choose your best options.

Your gift will be used where the need is greatest. Here are a few ways you can support ARF through legacy planning:

- Leave a specific or residual gift in your will or trust
- Designate ARF as a beneficiary of your IRA, retirement plan, or 401k
- Designate ARF as a beneficiary of life insurance, and more

Sample Bequest Language

Below is sample language to leave a gift to ARF through your will or trust.

To make a gift of a specific amount:

“I give $_____ to Tony La Russa’s Animal Rescue Foundation, headquartered in Walnut Creek, CA, for general purposes.”

To make a residual gift:

“I give the residue (or _____% of the residue) of my estate to Tony La Russa’s Animal Rescue Foundation, headquartered in Walnut Creek, CA, for general purposes.”

Your ARF legacy will transform, enrich, and save lives.

Over the years, your life may have been touched by a person or furry family member who speaks to your heart. Maybe your life was changed for the better by a loving companion animal you'll never forget. Maybe they left a paw print on your heart.

You can help ARF continue to make a lifesaving difference for many by making a gift (bequest) through your will or living trust. You will have the immediate satisfaction of creating a lasting and personal legacy that ensures ARF's future.

Make an important impact for years to come for both people and animals. Your gift will create a legacy of love that will change lives through rescue, adoption, medical care, disaster relief, education, programs that promote healing to seniors, veterans, students, hospital patients, and more.
